About Greenwood County, SC

The county takes its name from its county seat, the City of Greenwood, which was named around 1824 for the plantation of an early resident, John McGehee, Jr. Since 1950, Greenwood County has experienced diversified industrial growth with construction of new factories by major corporations. The county is home to the George W. Park Seed Company, Fuji Photo Film's North American manufacturing complex, and Velux, whose research and development divisions are on the cutting edge of science and technology. Piedmont Technical College and Lander University in Greenwood provide quality educational opportunities for individuals to acquire the knowledge and skills for employment in engineering, industrial technology, business, health, liberal arts, and public service, or for transfer to senior colleges and universities such as Lander University, in Greenwood since 1872.
